DEVRY SMITH FRANK LLP

Lawyers & Mediators

MARTY RABINOVITCH

B.A.H., LL.B.

Featured Area of Practice: Education Law

Areas of Practice: Employee Law, Employer Law, First Responders, Human Rights Law, Labour Law, Personal Litigation, Regulatory Health and Safety Law

Direct: 416-446-5826
Fax: 416-449-7071
marty.rabinovitch@devrylaw.ca

YEAR OF CALL: 2010

EDUCATION: Queen's University (B.A.H. in Political Studies) and University of Windsor (LL.B.).

Marty is a graduate of Queen's University (B.A.H. in Political Studies) and the University of Windsor (LL.B.). He received multiple academic awards from Queen's University and Upper Canada College. He was the recipient of the 2008 Gavel Award from the University of Windsor for the best written judgment of a student judge presiding over the Law 1 moots. He also participated in the Laskin Moot competition, where he presented his arguments in French.

Marty spent several summers working at Devry Smith Frank LLP ("DSF") and articled with the firm from 2009-2010. As an articling student, Marty was involved with many Small Claims and Superior Court matters. He has attended at examinations for discovery, settlement conferences and trials. Marty has also appeared before masters and Superior Court judges on various motions and other matters and has also attended at the Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario.

Marty was called to the bar in 2010 and currently practises in the areas of commercial litigation, employment law and human rights law.

While attending law school, Marty volunteered at Community Legal Aid at the University of Windsor and Pro Bono Students Canada. He is an avid tennis player, enjoys watching and umpiring baseball, and has travelled extensively in Europe.