DAYNA DEVONISH-MONTIQUE

LL.B

Areas of Practice: Wills and Estates, Immigration, Corporate Law, and Civil Litigation

Dayna joined the firm in 2022 as an articling student in the Midland office, after the merger of Devry Smith Frank LLP (DSF) and Prost & Lediard Law. She completed her LL.B (Hons) from the University of the West Indies, Barbados, and has received her Certificate of Competence from the National Committee on Accreditation as an internationally trained lawyer.

Prior to joining DSF Dayna articulated at Prost & Lediard Law where she gained extensive experience in an array of wills and estates, civil and small claims matters. Before Prost and Lediard Dayna worked with several government Ministries including the Ministry of the Attorney General as a Family Court Registrar at the Superior Court of Justice in Barrie.

Dayna's practice areas span from wills, estate planning and estate administration to immigration, corporate law, and civil litigation. Dayna enjoys both a solicitor-based practice and being in the courtroom intermittently.

She is energetic and enthusiastic and enjoys meeting clients on a one-on-one basis, she welcomes the opportunity to meet new clients and assist them in navigating their estate planning needs.

Dayna is a new member of the Young Women in Law Association and Uplift Black in Simcoe County (and the Law Society of Ontario). In her spare time, she enjoys going to the gym and spending time with family.
