Featured Areas of Practice: Wills and Estates

Martin Prost joined our wills and estates team at Devry Smith Frank LLP (“DSF”) in 2022 and has over 40 years of experience. He helps his clients in all areas of estate planning and provides services such as:

- Drafting wills
- Designating trustees and beneficiaries,
- Assigning power of attorney for personal care/property
- Philanthropic dispensation

Clients around the Greater Georgian Bay area can trust they are in good hands with Martin Prost when it comes to drafting wills and assigning power of attorney because he ensures their assets are distributed without unwanted intervention. This is a crucial part of protecting your family’s estate from being overtaxed and ensuring your specific last-wishes are adhered to.

Martin acquired his first university degree at McMaster University in an honors bachelor of arts (Classics) program. He then went on to receive his law degree at the University of Western Ontario. Upon being called to the bar in 1974, he began his practice of law in the Town of Midland and partnered with Devry Smith Frank LLP in 2022 to expand his practise even further. Although he remains in general practice his interest gravitates to wills and estates, litigation, real estate, corporate, family law, and personal conflict reconciliation. He has developed such a keen interest and aptitude for conflict resolution that in 1981 he attended his first relational mediation course and has subsequently gone on to create and participate in many alternative mediation courses.

For his clients, this means that if any disputes over your will arise, Martin Prost is savvy enough to review it and guarantee the satisfaction of all parties involved. To work with Martin Prost call (705) 526-9328 or email Martin.Prost@Devrylaw.ca.
