B.SC, LL.B

Featured Areas of Practice: Bankruptcy & Insolvency

Area of Practice: Collections and Mortgage Recovery

Gabriella Schneider is a bankruptcy lawyer at Devry Smith Frank LLP (DSF), who possesses an exceptional talent for drafting legal documents and a remarkable track record of winning cases. Gabriella joined DSF in 2023 and has since made significant contributions to the firm's Bankruptcy and Insolvency practice.

With her extensive knowledge in bankruptcy law, Gabriella has helped clients navigate through the insolvency and bankruptcy process which includes, secured and unsecured creditors, trustees, receivers, and debtors. She explains how the bankruptcy process works and helps her clients understand various types of bankruptcy, the pros, and cons of each, the legal and financial consequences of filing for bankruptcy, as well as any alternatives to bankruptcy.

Gabriella helps clients prepare and file bankruptcy petitions with the court on behalf of their client which involves collecting and organizing financial information, filling out forms, and submitting documents to the court. She also negotiates with creditors on behalf of her clients to reach a debt repayment plan or settlement.

Moreover, Gabriella's drafting of legal documents, including notice of motions, draft orders, affidavits, and factums, has aided in over 20+ winning motions in the Superior Court of Justice. Her remarkable expertise and success in winning bankruptcy cases make her an asset to any legal team.

Gabriella's contributions to DSF's Bankruptcy and Insolvency practice have established her as a trusted advisor to clients seeking sound legal advice and representation in bankruptcy proceedings.
