Three questions every Franchisee should ask.

1. What are some factors I need to consider before buying a franchise?

Purchasing a franchise can be a significant investment. Not all franchises are built the same. What are some typical factors to consider before buying a franchise?

- Size of investment: Can you afford the franchise fee and set-up costs? Many franchises fail because there is simply not enough money to operate the franchise during the early stages, as the initial investment was too great.
- Industry: Is the industry a growth industry or are there too many competitors? Give careful consideration to the growth potential of the franchise industries you are exploring.
- Reputation of the franchisor: A reputable franchisor can provide training, support, and guidance. A poor franchisor can cause headache, frustration and stress.

2. What is the process of purchasing a franchise in Ontario?

- Research franchise opportunities
- Receive and review the Franchise Disclosure Document with legal counsel
- Submit a Franchise Application Form
- If accepted, enter into a Franchise Agreement
- Build out your franchise

2. What obligations does a franchise have to its franchisees?

In Ontario, The Arthur Wishart Act (Franchise Disclosure) 2000 (the “Act”) governs the franchisor/franchisee relationship. The Act requires franchisors to:

- Provide accurate, clear and concise disclosure documents
- Act in good faith and in accordance with reasonable commercial standards
