GABRIELLA SCHNEIDER

B.SC, LL.B

Area of Practice: Bankruptcy & Insolvency, Collections and Mortgage Recovery

Gabriella Schneider is a DSF lawyer with over two years of experience in areas such as secured and unsecured collection, enforcement, and civil litigation. With a results-oriented approach, she provides exceptional client services and delivers innovative solutions to complex legal problems. Gabriella possesses strong knowledge of legal office procedures, court processes, and legal drafting, making her well-equipped to handle litigation files from beginning to end.

Gabriella's exceptional communication skills, both oral and written, allow her to present complex legal issues to non-lawyers and deal effectively and pleasantly with colleagues, judges, clients, and third parties. She works well independently as well as in a team environment and has a fast-learning ability, is detail-oriented, and has superior organizational skills, making her capable of finding creative solutions to complex problems.

Gabriella's extensive experience includes working as an associate lawyer at a boutique law firm in Toronto where she helped the team win over 78 judgments in the Superior Court of Ontario. Gabriella also successfully aided in obtaining a default judgment in favor of a creditor for a loan worth over $55,000 and helped settled three complex general litigation cases.

In her free time, Gabriella enjoys pilates, baking, and spin class.
