MOHADESEH BAKHTIARI J.D

Area of Practice: Articling Student

Mohadeseh Bakhtiari recently graduated from the Juris Doctor program at the Lincoln Alexander School of Law at Toronto Metropolitan University (formerly Ryerson University) and is excited to be joining Devry Smith Frank LLP ("DSF") as an articling student.

During her time at Lincoln, Mohadeseh was the Vice President of the First Generation Law Network. She also summered at the Justice for Children and Youth (JFCY) legal clinic, assisting youth with no or precarious immigration status. While at JFCY, she published an article for the Canadian Bar Association. She also completed her integrated practice curriculum program at the Department of Justice.

Before law school, Mohadeseh completed an Honours Bachelor of Criminology at the Toronto Metropolitan University. She also worked at the York Region Centre for Community Safety as a caseworker, assisting victim-survivors of domestic violence. She received the Carla Cassidy Award, which recognizes a fourth-year student with the highest CGPA across the Faculty of Arts.

Outside work, Mohadeseh enjoys travelling, going to the gym and hiking.
