GABRIELLA SCHNEIDER

B.SC, LL.B

Featured Areas of Practice: Commercial Litigation

Area of Practice: Bankruptcy & Insolvency, Collections and Mortgage Recovery

Gabriella Schneider is a skilled DSF lawyer with over two years of experience in commercial litigation. With a practical approach, she offers innovative solutions to intricate legal issues and provides exceptional client service. Gabriella's strong knowledge of legal office procedures, court processes, and legal drafting equip her to handle commercial litigation files from start to finish.

Her areas of litigation expertise include contractual disputes, landlord and tenant leasing issues, construction litigation and construction liens, shareholder and partnership litigation, real estate and title insurance litigation, fire and property insurance litigation, injunctions, franchise disputes, insolvency and creditor rights litigation, defamation, libel and slander litigation, breach of fiduciary duty, and non-compete disputes.

She provides valuable legal insight, substantial client representation, effective risk management solutions, and reputation protection to individuals and businesses facing legal challenges

Gabriella has extensive experience as an associate lawyer at a boutique law firm in Toronto, where she helped win over 78 judgments in the Superior Court of Ontario. Her exceptional communication skills, both oral and written, enable her to present complex legal issues to non-lawyers and deal effectively and amicably with colleagues, judges, clients, and third parties.

In her free time, Gabriella enjoys pilates, baking, and spin-class.
