RACHEL WEITZ

B.A., J.D

Area of Practice: Articling Student

Rachel H. S. Weitz is pleased to return to DSF as an articling student after completing her Juris Doctor degree from Osgoode Hall Law School. She received her Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Criminal Justice and Public Policy from the University of Guelph, where she graduated with distinction and earned a place on the CSAHS Dean's List of Honours eight times. Rachel has gained work experience in various roles, including as a Research Assistant, LSAT tutor, Residential Funding Intern, and IT/OT Intern.

Apart from her work experience, Rachel participated in extracurricular and volunteer activities at Osgoode Hall Law School. She served as an Osgoode Student Ambassador, providing guidance on the application process and responding to applicants' questions and concerns regarding academic and student life at Osgoode. Rachel was also a Dean's Fellow and provided comprehensive peer support for Professor Hutchinson's Fall 2022 1L Torts class. In addition, she is involved in peer mentorship, serving as a mentor for various student groups, including the Jewish Law Students Association, Disability Collective, and Criminal Law Society.

Finally, Rachel is involved in community service through Hungry North of the GTA, where she donates and distributes groceries, clothing, baby supplies, and pet goods to low-income individuals and families in her neighbourhood and surrounding areas. She is also a big supporter of the Toronto Blue Jays and Maple Leafs and is an avid tennis and golf player.
