JASON CORRY

B.S.M., J.D.

Area of Practice: Articling Student

Jason is an articling student at Devry Smith Frank LLP (DSF), returning after completing his 2L summer with DSF. Jason received a Bachelor of Sport Management (B.S.M.) from Brock University and a Juris Doctor (J.D.) from Osgoode Hall Law School, where he actively contributed to the community through various leadership and volunteer roles.

Jason was Co-Chair of the Osgoode Athletics Association, helping organize charitable events to support cancer research. He also volunteered with Pro Bono Students Canada and the Osgoode Investor Protection Clinic, providing legal assistance for victims of financial misconduct.

As a resident of Whitby, Jason is particularly thrilled to support his community at DSF's Whitby office. Outside of law, Jason enjoys travelling, playing golf, hockey and football, and is an avid Toronto Maple Leafs and San Francisco 49ers fan.
