WE ACT IN YOUR BEST INTEREST

The loss of a loved one can be a devastating and an emotional experience. While mourning a loss, you may find yourself overwhelmed by the responsibility of ensuring that all of your family's affairs are in order, especially if you are listed as an Executor, Administrator, or Trustee of an Estate or Trust for the deceased. However, many other individuals have also experienced being left out of the deceased's will and believe that they are entitled to a share. At DSF, we are here to act in your best interest and in accordance with the law.

WE ARE HERE TO HELP

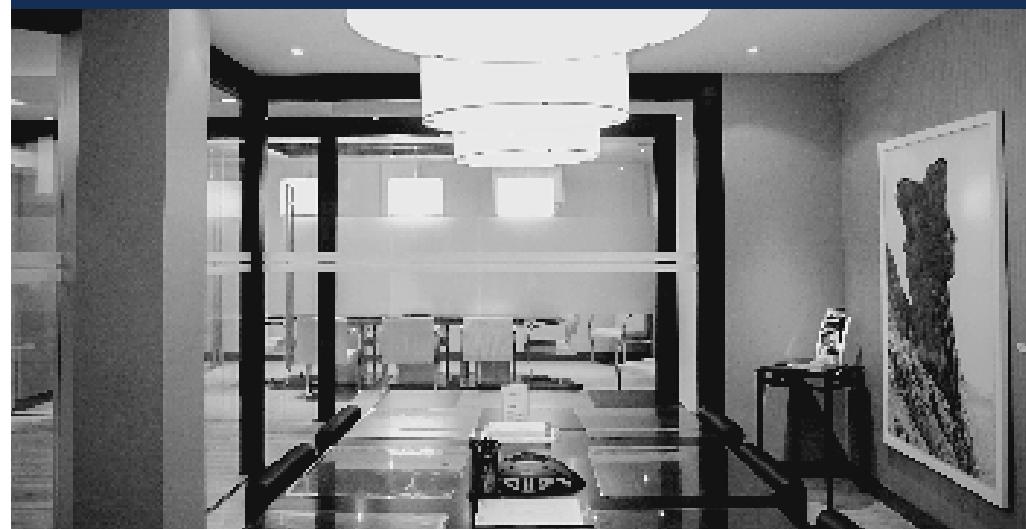

Estate litigation generally refers to legal proceedings to resolve disputes over the assets of a deceased family member. Most often, this involves challenges to a will, either to have it varied or to have it declared void. At DSF, our extensive experience in developing estate plans, business succession plans, drafting wills and trusts and working with executors, administrators, trustees, guardians and attorneys for property management allows us to provide outstanding advice and guidance when matters become contentious. This could happen when an individual is being left out of a deceased's will and believes that they are entitled to a share.

In these circumstances, knowing where to begin in matters of contesting a will can be extremely difficult. Our estates litigation lawyers have practiced law in the GTA since 1964 and are qualified to advise clients on how to proceed while providing support from start to finish when challenging the validity of a will. At DSF, we know that matters of estate litigation often come with a great deal of emotional pain along with legal and financial aspects. For more than 50 years, DSF has handled estate litigation cases with the compassion and expertise required to get our clients the results they deserve. Our estate litigation lawyers are always ready to sit down at any time and discuss your legal needs in a cost-effective manner.
