RAMNEEK PAUL

Area of Practice: Collections and Mortgage Recovery, Paralegal

Ramneek Paul joined Devry Smith Frank LLP in 2026 as a licensed paralegal in the firm's Collections and Mortgage Recovery Department. She holds a Paralegal Diploma from Humber College and a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology from York University.

Ramneek's practice centres on debt recovery and mortgage enforcement, where she brings a clear understanding of creditor-side priorities, risk considerations, and the procedural demands of Small Claims Court. She is effective in managing large portfolios while maintaining close attention to detail, allowing her to move files forward in a timely and organized manner. She approaches each matter with a solutions-oriented mindset, balancing firm advocacy with a pragmatic approach to resolution.

Ramneek is recognized for her strong communication skills and her ability to handle sensitive interactions with opposing parties in a professional and composed manner. She works closely with clients to support recovery strategies that align with their operational needs and is able to adapt to shifting timelines and volumes in a fast-paced practice.
