EDUCATION:

Western University

University of Toronto

Trevor is an active member of Western Law's mootting community. He has participated in and clerked for numerous internal mootting competitions covering topics and areas such as negotiation, salary arbitration, and tax law. His mootting experience is highlighted by his participation in the Bora Laskin Constitutional and Administrative Law moot competition as Western Law's French Oralist.

During his free time, Trevor enjoys travelling, reading books, camping, and hiking with his dog Riley. He is also a deeply passionate fan of the Montreal Canadiens.
