WHY DEVRY SMITH FRANK LLP?

We understand employment law

Employment law includes legal matters, such as employee terminations, employee contracts and labour law. Layoffs and terminations can be a potential minefield for many employers. Timely advice from our employment lawyers can help you to manage the process, avoid many of the pitfalls that await the unwary, and minimize the cost of staff reductions.

We are Human Resource friendly

Beyond terminations, we can help you with all of your Human Resources questions such as: overtime, vacations and leave, employees who require accommodations due to illness or disability, discrimination and human rights, retirement, pensions, workplace safety, and issues related to drug and alcohol testing in the workplace. We can also help you develop a set of legal documents for you to use in your business such as: employment contracts, policy handbooks (including workplace harassment and violence policies) and other agreements.

We know both sides

Since we act for both employers and employees, we have the benefit of knowing both sides of the picture which helps us to anticipate and counter arguments before they arise.
