MARK I. FOX

J.D.

Featured Area of Practice: Corporate Services and Acquisitions

Other Areas of Practice: Real Estate, Wills & Estates

Mark has practiced in the areas of corporate and commercial law for 40 years.

His practice includes incorporations, mergers and acquisitions and tax planning for businesses and entrepreneurs.

A significant number of his corporate and commercial clients own and operate family run businesses and he has acted as their counsel, in many cases for several decades, and helped their businesses to grow and prosper.

Mark received his Juris Doctor degree from Osgoode Hall Law School and was admitted to the Ontario Bar in 1977. Mark has taught at the College level for several years and he has been a contributing author to Law Society of Upper Canada publications and a participating lecturer at Law Society of Upper Canada continuing education seminars.
