WHY DEVRY SMITH FRANK LLP?

We are experienced

The Not-for-Profit and Charities Law group at DSF consists of highly experienced lawyers with a broad range of knowledge and experience representing the interests of not-for-profit organizations and registered charities, and their directors, officers and members. In addition to acting as counsel to not-for-profit and charitable organizations, many of the lawyers in this group are active in charitable activities and sit on the board of directors of various charities and not-for-profit organizations.

We understand your needs

DSF regularly provides effective and efficient legal advice and assistance to not-for-profit and charitable organizations in Ontario. We understand that this sector encompasses a range of unique and complex issues and our legal services are tailored to provide the special expertise and practical solutions our clients need. As a full-service law firm, DSF offers its not-for-profit clients assistance in all areas of not-for-profit legal services, including employment, trademarks, real estate, litigation, and tax. We are here to help our clients maintain their best practices by providing effective legal advice.
