Featured Area of Practice: Business & Corporate Services

Jake Vogl joined Devry Smith Frank LLP ('DSF') as an associate lawyer in our corporate department in 2021. Prior to joining DSF Jake worked at a boutique business law firm. With a client-centered approach and the ability to anticipate issues before they arise, clients rely on him for timely, efficient, and effective legal advice.

Jake provides a suite of corporate and commercial services to start-up, growth stage, and mature privately held companies, including mergers and acquisitions, corporate structuring, negotiating and drafting agreements, and debt and equity financing. He specializes in advising technology companies at any stage of their growth cycle.

Jake received his Juris Doctor from Queen's University where he was involved with a number of initiatives at the intersection of law and technology, including serving as Vice-President of the Venture Law Society and Technology Law Club, and Project Founder at the Conflict Analytics Lab. Jake also volunteered with Queen's Legal Aid, where he provided legal services to students and low-income residents of the Kingston / Napanee area. Prior to law school Jake attended Western University where he achieved a Bachelor of Management and Organizational Studies, with an honours specialization in consumer behaviour.

Outside the office, Jake enjoys cycling (road, mountain, etc.) and trying out new recipes.
