JASON CORRY

B.S.M., J.D.

Featured Area of Practice: Commercial Collections & Mortgage Recovery

Areas of Practice: Commercial Litigation

Jason Corry is an associate lawyer in the mortgage recovery group at Devry Smith Frank LLP (DSF). He completed both his summer and articling terms with DSF before continuing his practice with the firm as an associate. Jason earned a B.S.M. (Hons.) from Brock University and a J.D. from Osgoode Hall Law School before being called to the Ontario Bar in 2026.

Jason works with institutional and private lenders on mortgage enforcement and recovery matters. His practice includes the enforcement and recovery of defaulted loans, power of sale proceedings, realization on security interests, and secured and unsecured creditor remedies.

Jason is committed to providing practical, strategic advice and responsive service. He prioritizes clear communication and works closely with clients to advance recovery matters efficiently while remaining attentive to their unique interests and business objectives.
